

Why SUPPORT This Movie?

Director Angelo Libutti - a member of an Oscar award winning team - who has worked on over 35 Feature films, covering every role on a major film production. A devout Catholic, who's cousin/ godfather was St. Padre Pio's personal assistant for 25 years - is now taking a big step out of Hollywood to bring you all that he has learned.

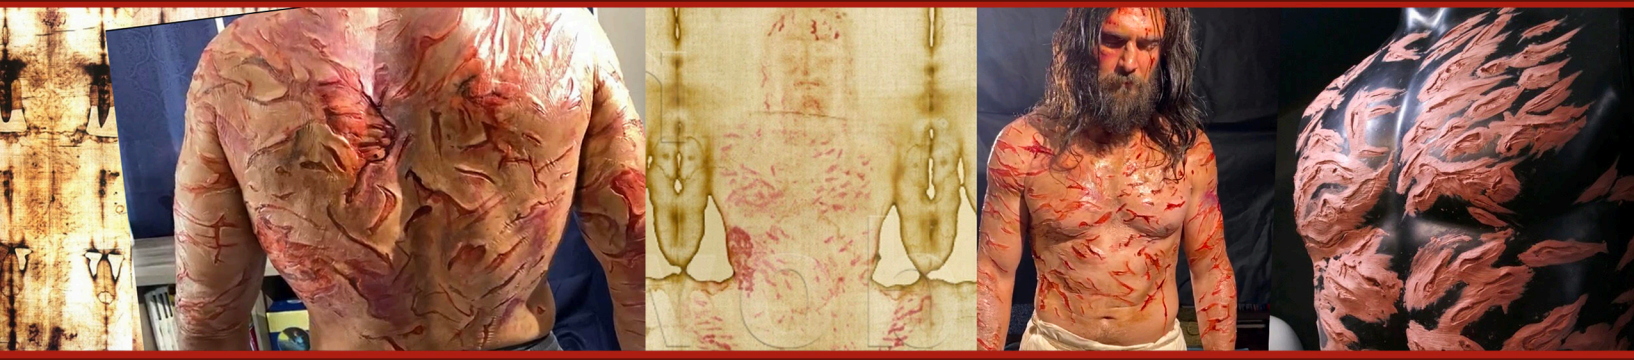

A look at the books he used to write the script in collaboration with Robert Renzi and Evan Matthews. Sourced mainly by the Douay-Rheims Bible, and accompanied by 'Catena Aurea: Commentary' by St. Thomas Aquinas, 'Life of Christ' by Fulthorn Sheen, 'Life of Jesus Christ & Revelations' by Anne Catherine Emmerich & 'Interior Castle' by St. Teresa of Avila. All resources keep within true Catholic teaching and throw away the typical lukewarm movie aimed to please the protestant narrative.

A preview at the first rough scourging makeup testing! Prosthetics were followed perfectly to match the marks from the Shroud of Turin on Christ's body. This is one of many advanced techniques, led by an award winning Catholic make up artist, Angelo was able to bring to the team. As well as a few Catholic Disney editors.
